MA FERGUSON BEHIND, EARLY RETURNS SHOW

Former Woman Governor Of Texas Trails Publisher

DALLAS, Texas, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Ross S. Sterling of Houston, who made millions in the Texas oil fields, and dispensed a large part in various philanthropic late tonight, marched steadily toward victory in the runoff primary for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Mrs. Miriam A. (Ma) Ferguson, the states first woman governor, who was defeated for re-election in 1926 by Governor Dan Moody, trailed the oil magnate substantially when approximately half the estimated total vote had been tabulated. The Houston man assumed the lead early in the night, as returns from the urban centers admittedly Sterling strongholds were reported, but returns from the rural sections reduced the lead somewhat and kept the hopes of Ferguson followers high.

Returns to the Texas election bureau at 10:30 p. m. from 234 out of 253 counties, including 72 complete, gave the following:

Mrs. Ferguson 311,643; Sterling 388,212.

Indications were that the vote would be the greatest in the history of Texas primaries, a record having been set in the first primary this summer when eleven candidates sought the Democratic nomination for governor. Mrs. Ferguson led in that primary, and Sterling was second, and a runoff primary was held between the two high candidates.

DALLAS, Tex., Aug. 23.—(AP)—Unofficial returns to the Texas election bureau at 10:30 p. m. from 187 of the state's 253 counties, including ten complete, gave the following vote on today's contest for the Democratic nomination:

CHURCH CHARGES PAPERS APPEAL TO PREJUDICES

Methodist Temperance Board Finds Most Papers Are "Dry"

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—(AP)—The Methodist board of temperance, prohibition and public morals today charged "great, daily newspapers in some of our cities" with "making subtle, but perfectly obvious, appeals to religious prejudice in their warfare against the prohibition law."

This accusation was made in connection with an announcement that a survey of 1,438 of 2,213 newspapers listed in the American newspaper directory had shown 56 per cent of the periodicals studied to be dry in their editorial policy, 36 per cent wet and the remainder uncommitted.

Sixty-five per cent of the papers were reported as unbiased in the preparation of news stories dealing with prohibition and the display given such items. Twenty-six per cent were listed as publishing wet cartoons.

"Contrary to the general opinion," the board said, "the majority of the daily newspapers in the United States are dry in editorial policy and fair in their news treatment of the prohibition issue xxx."

"In general, the policy of the daily newspaper in regard to prohibition follows local sentiment, but this statement must be qualified, as there is considerable wet support in communities where the public sentiment is undoubtedly in favor of the eighteenth amendment."

While the great daily newspapers of the northern states are usually wet, the large number of dailies which serve smaller communities in that section gives a 50 per cent break to the dries. In the southern states the dry percentage is 62, in the middle 56, and in the west 56, the "trade being on editorial policy."

The survey was conducted by local observers, who studied the newspapers in their districts and forwarded their reports to the board here.

HOOVER RUSHES FLOOD CONTROL AND WATERWAYS

Rapidan Conference Results In Push To Projects

ORANGE, Va., Aug. 23.—(AP)—Acceleration of work already under way on inland waterways, and especially on flood control projects on the lower Mississippi, was decided upon today by President Hoover after a lengthy conference with engineers at his mountain lodge.

Under the program mapped out today, the approximately $35,000,000 available during this fiscal year for flood control work would be expended by spring. Ordinarily, it would be apportioned over the fiscal year which ends June 30. In view of drought and unemployment, it was felt that speeding up the river work would improve general economic conditions.

The president and his conferees, including Secretary of War Hurley, Major General Lytle Brown, chief of army engineers, and Colonel George R. Spaulding, also discussed next year's rivers and harbors budget and agreed that only the most worthy projects from the standpoint of commercial necessity should be carried forward.

Hanford MacNider, new American minister to Canada, another camp guest, discussed with the president the proposed St. Lawrence waterway, but renewal of diplomatic negotiations on this project are expected to await MacNider's arrival at Ottawa and his determination of the new Canadian government's attitude.

Mr. Hoover was represented as highly pleased with progress thus far on flood control projects but, nevertheless, he asked Secretary Hurley to move up if possible the whole program of waterway improvement.

An allotment of $24,200,000 for flood control was made on June 6. A good part of this is still available and in addition there remains the balance from $35,000,000 available last year under the Jadwin Flood control plan.

The president also discussed at some length the upper and lower Missouri improvements. Colonel Spaulding, in charge of these projects, told of the progress on the six-foot channel from Kansas City to Sioux City and also touched upon the Illinois waterway, a link in the proposed Great Lakes to Gulf system.

GERMANS STILL MYSTERIOUS ON ATLANTIC JUMP

Will Hop Off For North America Today

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 23.—(AP)—The crew of the German flying boat, bound from Europe to North America, was believed tonight to have landed safely in the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

The Hudson Bay steamer Baymen received a radio message from the craft at 1:18 P. M. (EST) saying it was almost to Cartwright and expected to land in ten minutes.

The German crew then reported that the antenna of its radio outfit was being hauled in and that it would not communicate further with the steamer.

Since there is no radio connection with Cartwright this was the last available news of the plane on its Greenland-Labrador hop, on which it took off from Inuvik, Greenland, this morning.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 23.—(AP)—The resolution island station of the Canadian department of marine was informed today by radio from Julienhaab, Greenland, that the German flying boat bound from Germany to North America took off from Inuvik at noon today (EST) for Cartwright Harbor, Labrador.

The Julienhaab message asked the marine radio station on Resolution Island to listen in for the plane's call, DANCY, on six hundred meters.

The Hudson Bay steamer Baymen radioed the Resolution Island that the plane had been sighted at 1:30 P. M. (EST) flying toward Cartwright Harbor.

The distance from Inuvik to Cartwright Harbor is about six hundred miles in an air line. Cartwright Harbor is 150 miles north by northwest of the northernmost tip of Newfoundland.

NATIONALISTS TURN TO DRIVE ON CHINA REDS

Hundreds Arrested in New Campaign to Stamp Out Communistic Move

SHANGHAI, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Eclipsing temporarily China's formal civil war, government authorities devoted their attention over a wide area today to mopping up campaigns against reds with numerous executions.

Officials are figuring in reports received here.

In Hankow anti-communistic defense forces arrested many suspected agitators and publicly executed eighteen after conviction. In Nanking, the capital, citywide raids yesterday and today by nationalist soldiers resulted in 130 arrests in addition to scores previously apprehended. "Cells," or communist locals, were smashed and propaganda seized. Dynamite and other explosives were found. Authorities said reds intended using them to blow up government buildings.

In Canton, metropolis of southern China, an uncompromising campaign against communists was under way. Soldiers raided the government's police training school where many allegedly have been converted to communism by nationalist soldiers and seven instructors were executed.

From Hankow came a story of communists branding adherents with hot irons shaped like the sickle, their international emblem. The reports said entire armies in Hunan province have thus far been branded. Primarily to insure detection in event of escape or defection of red followers whose loyalty was doubted.

The onsets between government troops and northern rebel forces in Hunan and Shaantung provinces appeared to be marking time, while little definitely known of its progress for several days.

W. C. T. U. BACKS WISCONSIN WET

JANESVILLE, Wis., Aug. 23.—(AP)—A resolution which would have withdrawn support of the Wisconsin W. C. T. U. from the leading candidates for governor, because they all were wet, was voted down overwhelmingly at a state rally this afternoon and the meeting ended without any definite action.

The two Republican candidates, Phil LaFollette, Progressive, and Walter J. Kohler, Conservative, and the Democratic candidate, Charles E. Hammersley, have declared either for modification or repeal of the 18th amendment and Volstead act.

A suggestion that the candidate for the prohibition party be supported was dismissed without comment.

THREE KILLED IN AIR CRASH

SHEBOYGAN, Wis., Aug. 23.—(AP)—Three men were killed today in an airplane crash two miles south of here when their plane exploded as it was doing a wingover and crashed 1,000 feet to the ground.

The dead were Elmer Watson, of Sheboygan, Wis., Gus Danrow, Sheboygan wrestler, and Marshall Field, formerly of Madison, the pilot.

Wreckage from their plane was scattered for a mile around.

The ship had just taken off from the airport, according to witnesses, when flames were seen to shoot from the motor. The wings buckled and the ship went into a spin.

GIRL KILLED IN HEAD ON CRASH

Both machines caught fire immediately after the crash and it was impossible to rescue Miss Sülle who apparently had been knocked unconscious.

Edward Steinmeyer, 23, also of Staunton, driver of the machine, was treated at a hospital for burns, a fractured rib, and numerous lacerations and bruises. He had attempted to pass another car when he crashed into the machine of A. Schlaeppe, St. Louis. Mrs. Schlaeppe was cut and bruised.

HOLD ILLINOIS GIRLS CAULFIELD GETS REQUISITION

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Governor Caulfield today received a requisition from Gov. Emmerson of Illinois for the return from St. Louis to East St. Louis of Vito Impastato, alias Joe Orland, and Frank Agrusa who are wanted on a charge of kidnapping Sam Scorrino, from his East St. Louis home July 12.

Courageous Crash Of German Stunt Flier Thrills Racers Preventing Serious Accident

From Far And Near

CURTIS-REYNOLDS AIRPORT, CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—(AP)—A flier who chose to perish himself rather than endanger the lives of massed spectators lent a touch of breath-taking drama today to the opening of the tenth national air races.

He was Fritz Loebe, Germany's leading stunt pilot. His Junkers plane stalled, then crashed, after he had maneuvered it so that imperiled spectators and a score of pilots were saved from possible injury. Loebe received only minor hurts.

To a roar of cannons, the rise and fall of excited cheers, and a sweeping exhibition of aerial might, the air spectacle swung to its opening, while in a far corner of the field lay the wreckage of Loebe's plane, mangled by a crash of thinking which prevented exultation being turned into tragedy.

Loebe had taken off at the east end of the field. As he reached the west end at a low altitude, the motor of his plane stopped. He faced the prospect of crashing into bleachers, striking a squadron of civilian planes or smashing his own ship. He chose the latter and wheeled in a quick turn, the right wing of the ship plowing into the ground.

Bruised and fearful, he crawled from the wreckage and directed workers in removing it. Race officials endeavored to placate his grief by announcing that the Junkers plane was to be flown to him by a biplane.

The first racing event on the program, over a 30 mile course for planes with 1,000 cubic inch displacement, was won by Jimmy Hatfield of St. Louis, in a travel air, his time was 9:49 minutes and his average speed 183.36 miles per hour.

"Speed" Holman of St. Paul was second in 10:32:08 and B. O. Howard, St. Louis, third in 11:17:04.

A short time later spectators witnessed the finish of the first of the derbies from all parts of the nation. Jack Livingston, Aurora, Ill., was the winner of the men's class B derby from Brownsville, Texas. W. G. Moore, only other entrant in the event, landed a few minutes later.

Senator Hiram Bingham, of Connecticut, president of the National Aeronautical Association, was principal speaker at the elaborate ceremony held before the women's derby. Others were Earl N. Reynolds of Chicago, president of the air race corporation and Clifford Henderson, manager of the air races.

As planes were being tuned up for the civilian open plane race, the first on the opening day program, army fliers soared over the grandstand in maneuvers which brought cheers from the thousands of spectators.

Just prior to the crash of Loebe, Marcel Doré, of France, was seen to the foreign pilots, shot about in the skies, slithered over the stands and performed other stunts that held the spectators breathless.

WOMEN MUSTER SEX FOR VOTE IN NOVEMBER

Ex-Governor Nellie Ross of Wyoming Heads Group of Democrats

By Marguerite Young

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Women students of how women vote and why are mustering ranks for a battle before the November election for the ballot of the several million voters of their sex.

Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, vice-chairman of the Democratic national committee, has underway a plan of action she worked out with Joseph Shouse, executive chairman, last winter.

The soft-voiced former governor of Wyoming has given immediate command of activities to Sus White, once brilliant suffragist but now the quiet executive secretary of the women's division of the Democrats.

Miss White said today that three-fourths of all the counties in the country have sent word of effective feminine organization.

Mrs. Lenne Lowe Yost, West Virginian whose one-time teacher, Chapman Fess, has just named her director of women's activities for the Republican national committee, said today she still was "sensing the situation."

When the command to march comes, she expects to be ready with a unified organization.

Waiting for responses from state leaders, Mrs. Yost has kept silent about her plans. She will do so cooperatively with the national leaders and will work with the women organization down the line.

Mrs. Ross is recuperating from a broken ankle suffered two months ago—but this has not interrupted her part of the Democratic women's program.

She has spoken in 26 states of the middle and far west in the past few weeks, raising a double battle cry—calling on women to vote for her party as having done so for women and attacking the administration on unemployment and the tariff.

Mrs. Ross will come back to the capital about September 15, for final counsels then she will go out again on a speaking tour.

A bureau will be maintained to send women Democratic speakers where they are requested. Among those expected to serve are Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of the New York governor; Representative Mary T. Norton of New Jersey; and Mrs. Genevieve Clark Thomson of New Orleans.

SPINAL INJURY CAUSED BY FALL

MARION, Ill., Aug. 23.—(AP)—Barlow Frazier, Jr., 12 year old patient in a St. Louis orthopedic hospital soon will have an operation to correct a broken spine.

His mother was thrown from a horse several days ago, breaking his spine. His father, Mrs. Belle Lambert, Extra, Ill., who had been divorced from Barlow's father and remarried, attempted to order an operation but was prevented because she was not the legal custodian of the child. A circuit court decree today placed the boy in his mother's custody permitting the necessary surgical care.

CAULFIELD GETS REQUISITION

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Governor Caulfield today received a requisition from Gov. Emmerson of Illinois for the return from St. Louis to East St. Louis of Vito Impastato, alias Joe Orland, and Frank Agrusa who are wanted on a charge of kidnapping Sam Scorrino, from his East St. Louis home July 12.

SWEDEN TO PAY HIGH HONOR TO LOST EXPLORER

Battleship To Bear Body Of Men Lost In 1897

OSLO, Norway, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Scandinavia, whose peoples for centuries have fared northward for adventure, sustenance and in the service of science, turned solemn thoughts today for a fitting welcome for one of their all but forgotten Arctic pioneers, Salomon August Andree, found dead after thirty-three years of mystery on the icy wastes of White Island beyond Spitzbergen.

The Swedish government took the initiative, ordering a battleship in readiness to go into the Arctic to meet the sealing vessel Brattvaag which is coming home with the exploration party of Dr. S. Horn and the body of the balloonist-scientist who vanished on his ill-fated voyage of July 11, 1897.

It was the Horn party which found the Swedish adventurer, together with one or maybe both of the daring companions who few with the ship bearing the grim token of a desperate ending of the sensational attempt.

Reaching port, the cortege will be greeted with solemn ceremonies of an appropriate nature.

Details still incomplete.

How soon before that day, Sept. 10 or perhaps somewhat earlier, more details of the tragedy of the north would be obtainable were but a matter for conjecture today. Dispatches from the remote contact which the homing ship made, a fishing boat with a wireless outfit, indicated that an entry in the diary of the expedition placed the last party's furthest north attainment at 83 degrees north latitude, seemingly several miles after the takeoff from Danes Island, Spitzbergen. This point is about 475 miles from the North Pole.

Evidently the explorers, or at least Andree himself, lived long enough after being wrecked to establish a permanent base in the shelter of a cliff. Moccasins and other equipment of the explorers were found to be well worn, indicating long, rough usage. Rifles and scientific instruments at Andree's side indicated he was the last survivor. In his diary, he was disengaged from its icy covering, will be found the true story of his adventure which the world so long awaited.

TRIBUNE EDITOR SUES EXAMINER

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Counsel for Robert M. Lee, city editor of the Chicago Tribune, today filed the declaration in Lee's $250,000 damage suit against the Illinois Publishing Co., publishers of the Chicago Herald and Examiner.

The suit is based on an article in the Herald and Examiner July 22, implying, the declaration alleges, that Mr. Lee knew of racketeering activities carried on by Alfred J. Lingle, slain reporter.

The suit also alleges that, prior to July 22, the Herald and Examiner printed stories which, while they did not directly and specifically charge, insinuated that Mr. Lee had knowledge of purported criminal activities of Lingle and was withholding this knowledge from authorities and trying to prevent some of Lingle's activities from being made public.

BROWNSVILLE DERBY ENDS; 5 STILL FLY

Flights Converging At Chicago Air Convention

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Landing her burning airplane in a field near Ope, Kas., Marjorie Doig, Danbury, Conn., entrant in the Long Beach-Chicago air derby, today prevented destruction of the ship and tonight hoped to continue in the race tomorrow.

Flying from Wichita to Kansas City, today's leg of the flight, Mrs. Doig's motor caught fire when a valve stalled. The flier "slipped" her plane to a safe landing, the maneuver preventing the flames from reaching the gasoline tank or tank. The fire was extinguished after she reached the ground.

Arriving here in a rescue ship late tonight, Mrs. Doig said she hoped to have a new motor installed tomorrow and continue in the derby. At the time of the accident she was in second place. The delay will place her hopelessly behind other contestants in the race.

Mrs. Gladys O'Donnell, of Long Beach, leader in elapsed time, led the five fliers remaining in the race into Kansas City.

(By The Associated Press.)

Status of the six air derbies converging on Chicago for the national air races last night was as follows:

Jack Livingston, Aurora, Ill., won the southern men's derby, Brownsville, Texas, today. Score of national air races, Saturday afternoon. Livingston led his competitor, W. G. Moore, Kansas City, by 1 hour, 18 minutes. His time was 16 hours, 28 minutes, 52.7 seconds for the 1800 miles.

Mrs. Phoebe Omile of New York continued to lead the women's Dixie derby which landed at Atlanta, Ga., Friday afternoon. Vera Dawn Walker of the Dixie fliers, was forced down during the day but continued on an hour and a half behind her competitors.

The men's class A Atlantic derby Miami-Chicago, arrived at Cincinnati Friday afternoon and the fliers decided to remain there until Sunday when they will take off for Chicago.

They had been scheduled to arrive in Chicago yesterday afternoon. At Killips of La Grange, Ill., was still leading by a margin of only 8 minutes, 20 seconds, over Art Davis, Lansing, Michigan.

Gladys O'Donnell, Long Beach, Calif., who had led the west coast women's derby from its start at Long Beach, Calif., landed first at Kansas City yesterday afternoon at 3:44.

Nick Mamer, Spokane, Idaho, led the five plane Seattle to Chicago derby into Aberdeen, S. D., at 4:52:49 yesterday afternoon after a hop from Bismarck, N. D.

Vernie L. Robert, Moline, Ill., who had been leading the men's class B Atlantic air derby, Hartford, Conn., to Chicago, was forced down by a broken valve at Lorraine, Ohio, yesterday. Four of the five fliers rested last night at South Bend, Ind., before starting the last lap of the 1200 mile race, expecting to end at Chicago today.

PLANE HEADED TOWARD ARCTIC

A radio message, sent direct from the plane and relayed to Winnipeg via Churchill, was received here today telling of the fliers' departure from Fort Heerne, historic trading post of the far Arctic shore.

This flight marks the first time white men have visited King William's Land in the summer season, and it is also the first time an airplane has crossed many of the areas of the barren territory.

TRUCKER SUES GAMBLER

St. Louis, Aug. 23.—(AP)—William Berberich, trucking contractor, today filed suit against Tony Foley, St. Louis county gambler, to recover $10,000 he alleges he paid Foley last year for a one-fourth interest in a dog-racing track which was never built. Berberich also is president of the Berberich Hotels, Inc., which operates at St. Charles and Cape Girardeau, Mo.

OMAHA MYSTERY GIRL AT LAST IS IDENTIFIED

Slain Woman Wife Of Alcohol Kink Of All Illinois

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 23.—(AP)—Buried in an unmarked grave which has been mysteriously decorated with a wreath of flowers every decoration day for eleven years, Omaha's mystery girl" has been identified as Mrs. Beulah McConnell Waggle of Colchester, Ill., wife of a liquor dealer who died under the fire of gangsters there more than a year ago.

Efforts by police authorities of several states to identify the woman, whose body was found in a ravine near here Nov. 20, 1919, proved fruitless. Only when a reporter for the Omaha World Herald yesterday showed a picture of the woman, taken in a morgue here soon after her body was discovered, was the identification accomplished.

McConnell and three sisters of the woman were positive in their identification of the "mystery girl" as Mrs. Waggle.

Mrs. Sterling Laphin of Mount Sterling, Ill., daughter of the woman identified as the "mystery girl." She also was positive in her identification of the woman found here as her mother.

When found by a farmer near here in 1919, the body had been lying in the ravine for two or three days. The woman had been killed by a bullet through the head, entering at the back and lodging in the right eye. Her hat, topcoat and shoes were missing. Heads from a strang around her neck, broken and scattered down the ravine, indicated that the body had been thrown into the gully from the road above.

The McConnells had made an extensive search for Beulah after she dropped from sight in Omaha a short time before her body was found here. Three years ago they queried Omaha police concerning the "mystery girl," but no identification ever came of their quest.

In Speech Secretary Says Depression Followed by Prosperity

SHARON, Pa., Aug. 23.—(AP)—"Jim Davis of Sharon," otherwise secretary of the House of Representatives, was honored by the home folks today.

It was "Davis homecoming" day, and among the notables present to honor the man who rose from a steel mill "piddler to a place in the cabinets of three presidents and who is now the Republican nominee for United States senator from Pennsylvania was Vice President Charles Curtis. A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Daze, north of East Lynn, Sunday evening at 6 o'clock when their daughter, Beatrice Genevieve, became the bride of Homer Campbell, formerly of Jacksonville, Ill., but now of Danville, Ill.

At the appointed hour to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Miss Eleanor Pearson, the bride and groom were joined in the ceremony of pink and white flowers where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold Pearson, pastor of the Methodist church at Kewanee, Indiana. The single ring service was used.

The bride wore pink satin with a corsage of pink roses. Following the ceremony the guests were served with a three-course dinner by the Misses Mildred Lynch and Louise Anderson. The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the table appointments and serving. There were sixteen guests.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

By SISTER MARY
NEA Service Writer

Many families like to eat dinner on the porch or in the garden during the hot summer days.

If these meals are not to entail an undue amount of work, careful planning is necessary. The first consideration is to reduce the number of dishes to a minimum. A one-dish combination of some sort with a salad and dessert simplifies serving as well as dish-washing.

Casserole dishes combining meat and vegetable pies are excellent main dishes for dinners at fresco. These dishes keep hot longer than steaks and chops and provide two or more food elements in one dish.

Very often the salad can be put on the table in an attractive salad bowl from which each person may serve himself. Compartment plates make an extra plate for salad quite unnecessary. These plates are not expensive and are a worth-while investment for the woman who does her own cooking and dish washing.

Paper plates and cups are in perfect keeping with out-door meals and do away with dish washing. There is always a picnic flavor to fresh air meals that makes them relished whether served on china or paper.

To Simplify Serving

Bread and butter sandwiches simplify serving, since one plate takes care of both bread and butter.

If the main course is a hearty salad, a light dessert of rice or cornstarch pudding with fruit is suitable. The main hot dish made with spaghetti or some starchy food requires a pudding made with eggs. Whenever menus are reduced to two or three dishes, much thought must be spent on their choice if a balanced meal is provided.

The following recipe for veal balls with macaroni and tomatoes en casserole is an excellent example of a one-plate dish.

Veal Balls With Macaroni

One pound finely chopped veal, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, 1 cup broken macaroni, 4 medium sized tomatoes, 1 small onion, 2 tablespoons butter.

Season meat with salt and pepper and shape in small balls. Cook macaroni in boiling, salted water for fifteen minutes. Drain and blanch. Peel tomatoes and mince onion. Put a layer of macaroni into buttered casserole, add a layer of tomatoes cut in slices and sprinkle with minced onion. Dot with butter and season lightly with salt and sugar. Add veal balls and cover with a second layer of tomatoes and dot with butter. Cover casserole and bake one hour in a moderately hot oven. Serve from casserole.

Daily Menu
LUNCHEON—Stuffed baked cucumbers, rye bread, currant jelly, cream puffs, lemonade.

DINNER—Veal balls with macaroni, apple-celery and raisin salad, whole wheat bread and butter sandwiches, cookies, iced tea, milk.

FISH BREEDERS GROUP LEASE DAVIS SWITCH

The C. & A. railroad reservoir at the Davis switch, three miles south of Jacksonville, has been leased to the Illinois Fish Breeders Association.

This association will carry on a series of experiments with fish in the Davis pond on both sides of the railroad track. The fish that are now in the reservoir will be taken out and replaced by fish of certain sizes and kinds and marked for future identification. Certain tests will be made for the purpose of learning how rapidly fish grow and develop and what species grow and develop best in the still waters of the lake of Illinois.

Only a limited number of fish will be put in the reservoir and fishing of all kinds will be prohibited from this date on. Fishermen and sportsmen generally will learn with a great deal of interest the results of the experiments.

The Illinois Fish Breeders Association is expected to be incorporated in a short time. The organization is a non-profit club and formed for the purpose of scientific experimentation. Several Jacksonville men were active in its formation.

Gene Sarazen Captures 1930 Western Open Title With A Record Smashing Score, 278

Gene Sarazen

By Paul Mickelson, Associated Press Sports Writer
INDIANWOOD CLUB, Orion, Mich., Aug. 23.—Gene Sarazen, swarthy son of Italy, led a par-shelling brigade over the Indianwood club trail today with such an astonishing burst of marksmanship that he ran away with the Western Open golf championship by a lopsided margin of seven strokes.
Finding the range of birdies and eagles with remarkable spade shots, the New York sharp-shooter blasted old man par right out of his stronghold with leads of 68 and 67 which, added to his leading 36 hole total of 142, gave him the handsome sum of 278 strokes for the long 72 hole struggle.
Sarazen's score not only netted him the second lowest score in the tournament's 31 years of play but won for him one of the few remaining crowns to escape his grasp. Too, it was one of the finest scores he ever carded in the more than 15 years he has been dazzling around the fairways. For the distance he was 10 shots under perfect figures.
At Espinosa, Chicago professional who lost to Bobby Jones in the 1893 play off for the national open title, landed in second place behind the high flying Sarazen with 285 strokes. The Chicago star bounded there after a great comeback. Tied for fifteenth after the first 36 holes, Espinosa whizzed over the final two rounds with cards of 70 and 67.
At Watrous, Detroit pro, and Bill Mehlorh of New York, flushed by a record smashing 65 on his final jaunt, tied for the third place money and honors with 286.
Mehlorh tied for fifteenth place at the end of the first 54 holes of the tournament probably the wildest finish it has ever known. On his card were eight birdies and one eagle. He had 10 one putt greens, one three putt green, sent on ball out of bounds, and went one stroke over par on three holes. He went out in 32, two under par and danced back with a 32, five strokes under par's challenge.
Horton Smith went fourth place with 287 while Walter Hagen, buoyed by final rounds of 68 and 71, finished fifth, a stroke away. Tommy Armour, the Black Scot, made a weak defense for the title, landing 20 strokes away from the new champion with a 292.

So relentless was the attack on par today that seven better than 70 scores were posted. Sarazen carded two of them. The others were scored by 68. Horton Smith with a 69, Charlie Guest, Detroit, with a 69, and Jimmy Johnston, Toronto star, with a 71.
More than a score broke par. Sarazen had seven birdies and one eagle on his two cards today. On but two holes did he go one stroke over par and one of them was on the 11th green, where he learned the title belonged to him and he three-putted playfully. On his morning round he went out in 31 and came back with a 28. On the final he shot a 32 going out and a 35 coming back.
Sarazen's only defeat by par on his four rounds came the first day when he took a 73, one over perfect figures. He shot a 68 yesterday to take the lead and then sailed it away with today's great scores.
Others leaders were Laurie Ayton, Evanston, Ill., 288; Bob Shave, Marion, Ohio, 291; Tony Macintyre, New York, 291; Emerick Kocals, Detroit, 291; Harry Hampton, Chicago, 291; Chris Brinke, Detroit, 292; Johnny Farrell, New York, 293; Charles Guest, Detroit, 293; Neal Macintyre, Indianapolis, 293; and Ed Dudley, Wilmington, Del., 293.
Gene Sarazen's final cards, which captured the Western Open golf championship at Indianwood today:
Par out 543 434 444-35
Morning: Sarazen out 433 433 443-31
Afternoon: Sarazen out 343 434 344-32

Morning: Sarazen in 445 345 535-38-69
Afternoon: Sarazen in 344 345 426-35-87
Leading scores of the Western Open golf championship, showing totals for each of the four rounds, successively, and 72 hole totals:

FAN BREEZES

by Ernest Savage

Did you notice that zippy feeling inspired by the atmosphere this morning? Now if some one will just begin burning leaves, the football season will arrive.

We have a card from Coach Wallace Baptist, who is now up at Northwestern University, going through "Pop" Warner's coaching school. Baptist says it certainly is a wonderful school.

Coach W. T. Harmon evidently changed his plans for the summer, for he also is registered at Northwestern for the course. "Bud" Saunders, Harmon's right hand man during the football season, also is in and diagraming of plays. Coach S. Robey Burns is attending the same school.

Baptist also tells us that Coach "Buster" Keagle of Roodhouse, and "Bill" Roellig of Springfield, are taking in the course. Dick Hanley, Northwestern football coach, and Duke Dunne, Harvard line coach, are other instructors at the school.

Easter Boy, J. B. Cooper's fast stepping horse which has appeared many times in the county fairs in this section, will race under different silks for the rest of this year, having been sold to Henry Turner of Roodhouse. Dave Neal, who has trained the horse for Cooper, went along with Easter Boy in the deal.

And that reminds us that it's only three weeks until the county fair begins. Followers of the harness races say that there is going to be a bigger influx of horses bred to the track this year than there was last year when a record went tumbling.

Several of the followers of the ponies have explained the reason Morgan county gets the best of the track horses for its fair as follows: something, and they do it. Things aren't like that around the county "The boys here say they will do fair circuits."

And then back to football again—August 25 is the date set by Frank Walker, the new Jacksonville coach, to arrive in the city. Boys, that's Monday—tomorrow.

Walker won't be able to begin practice for another two weeks, because he has to get the best of the football practice before September 9. High school will open on September 8, and that means that Jacksonville will get away with the rest of the conference schools in football training.

Walker has sent the old suits to a factory to be rehabilitated for this season, and has stocked a few new uniforms.

But wait—there's one more golfing event coming off. Sherman Coultas has arranged for an open tournament over his Mound Roads course. The players can crowd this in under the wire if they hurry, but the deluge of county fair and football is about to break and snow under a lot of worthy enterprises.

Peabody Miners Nose Out Redlegs In Ninth 6 To 5

Backed up by seven hit pitching, the Peabody Miners turned back the Jacksonville State Hospital Redlegs in the ninth inning of their game on the State Hospital grounds yesterday afternoon by a one run rally which gave them a 6 to 5 decision. The Miners, from Sherman, will return here Labor day to provide the feature of the celebration at the State hospital grounds.

Colossaco, the visiting hurler, held the Redlegs to seven hits while the Sherman club was collecting 10 safe hits off Hunter, Redleg hurler. It was Hunter's wildness which turned the tide in the ninth, for he walked Cox to open the inning and then gave a triple to R. Goldsmith which sent home the winning run after two hands had gone down caloused. Cox was run down between third and home trying to stretch his hit into a home run.

The Redlegs kept pecking away at Colossaco and had piled up a lead when the sixth inning rolled around. Then the visitors attacked the offerings of Hunter and aided by a few walks, passed balls and a couple hits, were able to take a one run lead. The Redlegs evened the count in their half on a Sherman error.

Viriden kept the contest from becoming just a ball game in the fourth inning when he pilfered the home sack for the second run of the inning. His double drive in Bosler from second, and his stolen base gave the Redlegs a 4 to 2 lead over the Miners. Viriden had the best day of bat of any of the Redlegs, getting a homer and a double in four trips to the plate. Dow got two hits, a single and a double, but his single in the eighth was wasted.

Warner featured the play for the visitors, polling out a home run in the first inning to drive in two runs and give the Peabody club a two run lead and got a single and a double in his next two trips to the rubber.

WORLD'S RECORD BROKEN AT PITT

Los Angeles A. C. Wins Honors at National Track and Field Meet at University of Pittsburgh—To Meet Empire.

By Ted Veeburg, Associated Press Sports Writer
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 23.—(AP)—A new world record was set today and the best shot put and javelin have ever recorded in America featured the national senior track and field championships of the Amateur Athletic Union at the University of Pittsburgh stadium this afternoon.
Led by a powerful band of athletes from Los Angeles, the team captured team honors by an overwhelming margin and also carried off second on the 20 individual titles. The track and field talent of the far west turned in the most spectacular performances for the meet with the British Empire at Chicago Wednesday night.

Sharing the spotlight with sensational achievements in the discus, javelin and shot was the latest renewal of sprinting rivalry between Eddie Tolan of the University of California and George Simpson of Ohio State. This time the honors in the 100 yard dash went to Michigan's "Midnight Express" after a great race in which he collared his rival at the half-way mark, but the Buckeye Bullet came back to beat him in the 220-yard dash, setting a new world record of 21.3 seconds for this event around a turn.

All told, one world's record was set, another was equalled, three American records went by the board and five championship records went into the discard as the fifty-first annual meet provided the thrills that had been anticipated and more besides.

Perhaps the outstanding individual feat was that of Paul Jessup, 6 foot, 6 inch discus-thrower from the Washington A. C. of Seattle, whose athletes tied with those of the Los Angeles team in a sensational performance. This human skyscraper from the great northwest threw the discus 169 feet, 81 inches to better by six feet the present world's record held by Eric Krenz of Stanford university who did not compete here.

In one of the other big moments of the day, Steve Anderson, also of the Washington delegation, equalled the world mark of 14.4 to retain his 120-yard high hurdle championship with several feet to spare. Herman Erik, former University of Washington athlete now competing for the Los Angeles A. C., set a new American mark of 52 feet, 51 inches for the shot put, and Jimmy Demers of the Los Angeles A. C. sent the javelin hurtling away to a distance of 222 feet, 10 inches to best the American record by a good ten feet.

Ed Gunning, an unheralded Washington A. C. half-mile, reeled off the distance in 1:53.4 to set a new meet record and turn in one of the best exhibitions the running events provided.

Surprises were many, on both track and field. Pete Bowen, quarter-mile title-holder, lost his crown in a thrilling race won by Vic Williams of the Los Angeles A. C. and collapsed into the cinders. The University of Pittsburgh's Peter Dinklage, who had an early attempt to set the pace and at the finish was so completely undone that he was taken to a hospital for observation.

Anderson, after retaining his high hurdling crown, went out to defend his honors in the 220 yard dash and failed in dramatic fashion, falling within reaching distance of the tape while Bob Maxwell of the Los Angeles A. C. went on to win with Lee Sentman of the University of Illinois as runner-up.

Fred Sturdy, once of Yale and now of the Los Angeles A. C. won his pole vaulting argument with Tommy Warner, of Northwestern university, but in unconvincing fashion as Warner sprained an ankle and was unable to continue in a jump-off after both had cleared 13 feet, 6 inches.

The showing of Ed Hamm, the Olympic champion, and Ed Gordon, University of Iowa Negro and the defending title-holder here, in the discus was a disappointment. Neither appeared in top form and both failed to place as Al Bates, former Penn State athlete, won with a leap of 24 feet, 31 inches.

That Uncle Sam has at least one young man who will fill the need for distance stars was indicated by the winning of 18-year-old Joe McInnes of South Manchester, Conn., and Fordham university, in winning the two-mile steeplechase with 150 yards to spare.

In points the Olympic club of San Francisco, winner last year, was second with 22 to the Los Angeles A. C.'s 45; with third place going to the Washington A. C. with 19.

With The Big Six

(By The Associated Press)
Bill Terry tightened his grip on the Big Six lead in a day of changes in the standings yesterday by registering a two point gain while the two National League rivals suffered severe losses. Terry made three hits in 5 times at bat to lift his average to .409. Babe Herman and Chuck Klein had a hitless day, Herman going to bat 8 times and Klein 3. The Brooklyn batter dropped eight points to .386 and fell from second to fifth place in the standing while Klein, losing two points, went into fourth at .388. Al Simmons took second and the undisputed American League lead as his two hits in four times at bat brought him one point gain while Lou Gehrig, kept idle by rain, remained at .390.

Chicago Team Work Puts New Yorkers Four Games Behind In Pennant Race

(By The Associated Press.)

The National League pennant race eased up considerably as the result of the three games played by the leaders yesterday. The Chicago Cubs increased their lead over New York to four full games as they took the third game of the series from the Giants, 4 to 2.

At the same time, the slump of the Brooklyn Robins continued through both games of a double header as they lost to Cincinnati 4-3, and 5-1. And they dropped to six games behind Chicago and two behind New York, a loss of 11-2 games to the Cubs and a half game to the Giants.

The standing of the leaders:
Chicago 73 481 .303
New York 68 51 .571
Brooklyn 69 56 .552

By William Weekes, Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Nine Chicago Cubs, operating like a machine, fought the New York Giants today and tossed them one game farther back in the National league standing. Every man in the Cub line-up contributed some important action, and in less than two hours Chicago had a 4 to 2 victory. Pat Malone had his sixteenth victory of the season, and the Giant were four games behind the National league champions.

The terminal cause of the Giant's downfall was a sizzling single to left field by Hack Wilson with English and Cuyler on the bases in the eighth inning, but the pudge home run artist's effort would have been wasted had it not been for some preliminary work by Dan Taylor, Cuyler and Clarence Blair, combined with breath-taking fielding by English and Long George Kelly.

Malone did not have as easy sailing against the Manhattan mauders as he did against the Brooklyn Robins last week, but he was tough in the hard spots, and the support he received more than made up any shortcomings on the part of the Altona, Pa., first man.

Malone got into deep trouble in the fourth inning when Bill Terry turned loose a double, the first of his three hits, and after two men were put out, Travis Jackson dumped a home run into the bleachers. However, Earl Hubbell, slender New York southpaw, went along in beautiful style until the eighth inning when he suddenly lost control and was blasted from the rubber. Until that time he had given only five hits, but when he left three more socks had been registered along with a hit batsman and a walk for two runs.

Both teams fielded perfectly, but the accomplishments of Woody English, Cub short stop, outshone even the work of Hughie Critz who saved the Giants a lot of trouble. In the seventh inning he made a great stop and threw to get Lindstrom, sitting in for Charlie Grimm at first base, ruined a Giant rally in the fifth. Lindstrom and Terry singled after Critz had batted, and Leschke had popped out. O'Farrell got what looked like a hit until Kelly made a backhanded stab for the third out.

The victory was accomplished before the sixth overflow crowd of the season—46,000 jamming into Wrigley field—and was the Cubs second in three games with the Giants, with one more to go.
Fred Fitzsimmons probably will be the Giant pitcher tomorrow, with Guy Bush the likely Cub choice.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Al Simmons, Connie Mack's siege gun, got the range of American league pitching again last week and blasted 200 hits off the top of the individual batting list, unofficial averages which include Thursday's games revealed today.
Milwaukee Al added six points to his mark and led with 387, while Gehrig, who gained three points, was second with 384. Both, however, secured to damage Gehrig's hold on three other leaderships. He had propelled in 144 runs and his collection of 344 total bases was the class of the field. He also continued to lead Johnny Hodapp of Cleveland, in hits, with 177.

Ed Ruth eased off in the business of making home runs, getting only one during the week, but his total of 44 asked no favors of anyone. The Babe also was the leading run scorer with 132 in 115 games. Hodapp retained the leadership in two base hits with 97, while Earl Gorman, New York, topped the list in triples with 17. Marty McManus of Detroit, again was the best stealing pace setter, having swiped 17.
Regulars following Simmons and Gehrig in individual batting efforts were: Cochrane, Philadelphia, 378; Ruth, New York, 368; Manush, New York, 358; Manush, St. Louis-Washington, 355; E. Rice, Washington, 333; Averill, Cleveland, 351; Hodapp, Cleveland, 349; Porter, Cleveland, 343.

The marks of Gehrig, Ruth and Dickey gave the Yankees a nucleus for a team average of .211, six points better than Cleveland's runnerup mark. Washington was third, with .204 and was the only club in the 300 class. Philadelphia headed the league in team fielding with an average of .975, with Washington two points behind. The Boston Red Sox completed seven double plays for a season total of 126 break their tie with Detroit. The Tigers made five during the week and had 126.
Robert Moses Grove of the Athletics was supreme among the pitchers, regular and otherwise. The fireballer turned in two victories last week and had a record of 21 triumphs and four defeats for an average of .480. Young Wesley Farrell of Cleveland, also had 21 victories but had been defeated nine times. Grove was the strikethrough victor, his total of 155, 38 games being four better than the tie his teammate, George Earnshaw.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 23.—(AP)—A double triumph over Boston today gave Pittsburgh a string of six straight victories. The Pirates took today's games 5 to 0 and 2 to 1.
In the first encounter, Charlie Wood, western league rookie, gave the Braves five hits in scoring the shut-out. Ervyn Brainerd almost duplicated Wood's accomplishment in the second game, but Maguire's double and Cantwell's single in the eighth gave the visitors a run. The Pirates won in the seventh on three singles and an error by Cantwell.

SANDE DEFEATED IN FAIR DERBY
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 23.—(AP)—Outlasting Revellie Boy, and Earl Sande in a thrilling stretch finish, today, Billy Champ and Tommy May scored a neck victory in the $3,000 Governor's derby, blue ribbon racing event of the Illinois state fair.
Sande, who came to Springfield by airplane from New York to ride Chas. E. Best's temperamental three year old, gave his mount a characteristic ride, but the Warm Stable's entrant had a little too much left and May got it out of him in time to win.
Sande rated Revellie Boy in third place until the half-mile post, then moved him into the lead with Billy Champ third until they hit the stretch, where May made his successful bid.
The Keeneland stud farms' Jean La Fette was third, with Fetish, owned by Mrs. John D. Hertz of Chicago, in fourth place.
Billy Champ covered the mile and a sixteenth in 1:43 2-5, fast time for any track.

EMPIRE TRACK CONTEST ENDS

HAMILTON, Ont., Aug. 23.—(AP)—To the tune of crashing records in the track and field championships, the British Empire games came to a close today before a rain-drenched crowd of 20,000.

Led by the Williams of Vancouver Canada captured five of the ten track and field finals decided today while four went to England and one to New Zealand.

Williams after winning the 100 yard dash in 9.8-10 seconds, pulled up lame and had to be carried from the track. Later it was announced the Vancouver flash had pulled a tendon in his left leg and probably would be out of competition for some time.

Four Canadian records went into the discard today. Lord David Burghley, crack English timber-topper, smashed the mark for the 120 yard high hurdles with a 14.6-10 seconds performance.

R. H. Thomas, another English star, ran a spectacular race to smash the Canadian record for the mile. Thomas ran the eight furlongs in four minutes, 14 seconds to slip a full second off the old mark of 4:15 set in 1921 by Jole Ray of Chicago.

Canada with patched up team, won the quarter mile relay from England and South Africa in 42 1-5 seconds, smashing the old division record by two-fifths of a second. With Williams' injury, Canada was forced to substitute J. R. (Buster) Brown of Edmonton, but Brown upheld his end of the task in great style.

The fourth Canadian record to go by the boards was in the javelin throw in which S. A. Lay of New Zealand, tossed the spear 207 feet 1-2 inches, to win easily.

25 ATTEND M. V. L. BASEBALL GAME

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Perhaps it was dollar day, or the cool evening, or more likely, the outcome of the afternoon game. Anyway, 25 cash customers who showed up to see Dubuque battle Moline in the second game of a scheduled double-header tonight were given their money back and told that there weren't enough spectators to pay for the lights.

In the afternoon game, Moline badly whipped the Dubuque club 14 to 2. A double-header has been arranged for Sunday afternoon, sanctioned by the president of the Dubuque Club. This is the first known postponement of a baseball game here for the lack of spectators.

CUBS BUY PETTY TO AID IN RACE

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—(AP)—The Cubs today purchased Jess Petty, former Brooklyn and Pittsburgh left handed pitcher, from Newark of the International league, President William L. Veck announced.

The deal was a straight cash arrangement, Veck said, but the price paid for the veteran was not divulged. Petty will report Monday.

The acquisition of Petty will give the Cubs an experienced southpaw for their stretch drive in the National league pennant race, the only other left-hander on the staff is Bud Teichout, a youngster.

TILDEN CLINCHES TWO MORE TITLES

Big Bill Again Triumphs Over Youth to Win Thrilling Match From Allison and Then to Take Doubles Title.

By W. E. King.
 (Associated Press Sports Writer.)

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 23.—(AP)—The magic that Big Bill Tilden puts into his tennis racquet today overcame the elements and youth to give him the first important victories of the current American court season.

The lanky national champion, injured leg and hip and all, played thru a driving rain storm this morning and defended successfully his Newport Casino singles championship against the young but seasoned Wilmer Allison. Davis Cup doubles player, from Austin, Texas, in a stirring close finale, 6-1, 0-6, 6-7, 6-2, 6-4.

A few hours later when the weather had cleared, Tilden joined forces with his doubles partner, Frank Hunter of New Rochelle, to turn back the hard-fighting midwestern youngsters, Wilbur Coen, Jr., of Kansas City, and Harrison Coggeshall, Des Moines, Ia., in another five set battle for the doubles trophies by scores of 6-3, 6-4, 0-6, 6-6, 6-2.

CARDS SCORE 9-6 WIN ON PHILLIES

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Jess Haines, who has been on the inactive list for several weeks with an injured right arm, was back in the game today to pitch the St. Louis Cardinals to a 9 to 6 victory over the hard hitting Phillies. The win made it three in a row for the red birds.

Lester Sweetland was unable to hold the Cards in the pinches, permitting 14 hits, the twelve blows collected by the Phillies were scattered except in the ninth when a three run rally threatened the Cards' lead.

FRISCO PLAYER BOUGHT
 San Francisco, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Frank Crosetti, 19 year old shortstop sensation of the San Francisco Seals, was sold today to the New York Yankees in a cash-player deal understood to involve around $100,000.

The youngster will report to the American league club for the 1932 season. His new owners decided to farm him out to the Seals next year.

Hack Wilson's Feat Of Tying Homer Record Features Week

New York, Aug. 23.—(AP)—The feat of Hack Wilson, husky Chicago outfielder, in equalling the National league's home run record, stands out above all other hitting feats in this week's semi-official batting averages, issued today and including Wednesday's games. Hack has brought his mark up to 43 last week trying the mark set a year ago by Chuck Klein of the Phillies.

Klein, however, leads the league with totals of 122 runs scored and 43 doubles, is second to Wilson in homers and runs better in, and is tied with Bill Terry of New York, for the greatest number of hits, 195.

Giving them a close race for their honors are Babe Herman of Brooklyn with 192 hits, 42 doubles, and stolen bases, and Kiki Cuyler, who leads the base stealers with 30, is runner up in scoring with 121 runs, and in triples with 15.

Bill Terry is, for the present the only regular who is batting better than .400. His current average of .409 gives him a lead of 14 points over Babe Herman, who has dropped to .395, while Klein is third with a .391 average.

Other leaders who have been at bat often enough to be classed as regulars are Stephenson, Chicago, .386; O'Doul, Philadelphia, .385; Cuyler, Chicago, .384; F. Waner, Pittsburgh, .384; Lindstrom, New York, .381; Hogan, New York, .358; and Wilson, Chicago, .352.

With three regulars among the first ten, the New York Giants easily hold the club batting lead with an average of .321, five points ahead of Philadelphia. In fielding Cincinnati is ahead with a .974 mark, and New York second at .973.

The pitching leadership is in a rather muddled condition due to the conflict between regular pitchers and those who do not hurl so often. Joe Heving of New York has a .778 average gained from seven victories and two defeats, but he has not pitched a complete game, while Bob Oshorn of Chicago, who nine victories and three defeats give him a .750 mark, is not much better off in that respect. Pat Malone of Chicago has a claim as actual leader although his average is only .714. He has hurled 16 full contests and has won 15 games and lost 6.

REPORT REVOLT SPREADING IN NORTH OF PERU

Government Denies all Stories Of A New Revolution

LIMA, Peru, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Reports are current today that the revolutionary movement in the department of Arequipa had spread to the departments of Puno and Cuzco, but could not be verified officially.

The government organ La Prensa said, however, that both departments, which are north of Arequipa, were quiet and not been disturbed in the least.

Military garrisons were on the side of the government, added the paper, and lines of communication with the remainder of the republic are standing.

The revolt in Arequipa, the third city of Peru, was led by Lieutenant Colonel Sanchez Cerro. His troops arrested Federico Fernandez, prefect of the department, and Brigadier General Leonido Arias, chief of the Arequipa military division, but there was no bloodshed.

The war ministry tonight said it had received a telegram from the commander of the fourth army division at Cuzco that it indicated Cuzco had not joined in the rebellion. The message said "All orders received have been complied with, as usual." No news in the fourth division.

Buenos Aires, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Dispatches to La Union from Arequipa, Peru, today reported the revolution there had been bloodless, except for the death of one man, killed by a Chinese who believed himself attacked.

The dispatches dated yesterday said the coup had been carried out by the garrison, composed of a battalion of sappers, one mountain artillery and one of infantry. All were under the leadership of Lieutenant Colonel Luis Sanchez Cerro.

Brock, who with Edward Schiele, the southern transcontinental round trip air record, between Jacksonville and San Diego, will be accompanied by Robert V. Brown, St. Louis. Brock's plane is equipped with facilities for broadcasting 250 miles.

Brown, through stations at Denver, St. Louis, Denver, Chicago, Blue, and Des Moines, Iowa, and Chicago, expects to describe his flight.

GERMANS STILL MYSTERIOUS ON ATLANTIC JUMP

IVIGTUT, Greenland, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Four German aviators will take off tomorrow, weather permitting, on the last lap of a flight from Germany to the North American continent.

Captain Wolfgang von Gronau and his three companions—Edward Zimmer, aviation student, Franz Hack, mechanic, and Herr Albrecht, wireless operator—landed here yesterday afternoon from Reykjavik, Iceland, where they had arrived Wednesday, and made preparations to continue westward.

The fliers are reticent regarding their plans and their activities have been rather mysterious since they left the German school for commercial pilots at Warnemunde, of which Von Gronau is chief, on a training flight early this week.

They reached Reykjavik from the Faroe Islands Wednesday and it was reported then that they were headed for the United States. Later both Von Gronau and heads of the aviation school denied this, saying the fliers would remain in Reykjavik until the German gunboat Meteor had departed yesterday noon.

Instead, they rose early yesterday morning and went to their big Dornier Wal flying boat. Von Gronau told a bystander that they probably would be in Germany by night, but the next heard of them was that they were over the ocean half way to Greenland. By mid-afternoon they had landed here.

It has not been made known if they intend to go to the United States, but their plans for flying to Canadian territory show them headed for North America, at any rate.

PHYSICAL POWER CONTROL URGED BY WM. BENNETT

"You will never be happy," said Mr. Bennett, "until you really share your possessions with friends. No one yet has been great by being exclusive, and all big men have been inclusive. Lincoln was so famous because he took in the entire world and as a reward the world took him in and made him famous. You can't take the world; you can only give to it, and let it take you."

Find Powers.

Mr. Bennett urged the people in his audience to find their powers and apply them to solving the problems of the world. In the mind of the speaker the three great questions baffling the United States today are prohibition, the farm situation and crime. The first, he said, could be fully attained only through education of the people. The crime situation, which he described as government within a government, will not be eradicated until the unemployment difficulties throughout the whole country are solved. The speaker said, "When a working man who has been able to provide all the modern conveniences and pleasures for himself and family suddenly finds these things gone and sees a lack of bread for his table, he invariably will see red. This 'red' situation must be fought from inside out and not from outside in. The only Bolshevism existing in this country is the uprising of decent, honest men and women who cannot find work to support their families."

Mr. Bennett expressed his faith in the American people of today, despite the fact that the government situation now is all that they deserve. He told his audience "You have tried the laws of selfishness in recent years and you got what you deserved. Now adopt the law of generosity and consideration of other people, apply the Golden Rule, and your difficulties will gradually be solved."

A musical program of varied numbers was presented yesterday afternoon and evening by the Shubert Male quartet. Among their selections last night were the ever popular quartet number, "On the Road to Mandalay," "Mammy's Lullaby," arranged for humoresque; "Gypsy Love Song," the latest scene from "Fanny," "The Dawn Brought Me Love and You," "Land of the Sky Blue Waters," and "The Moon Drops Low," two Indian compositions by Dr. William Wakefield Cadman; scene from the opera "Rigoletto," and "Lead Kindly Light," a duet. "Hungarian Rhapsody" and a solo number by the quartet's accompanist, "Country Gardens," a composition by Percy Grainger, were very well played.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—(AP)—One of the silent north has been solved with the finding of the bodies of Solomon Auguste Andre and his two companions, who flew off toward the North Pole in a balloon 35 years ago, but the Arctic still holds the fates and the bodies of 141 other men, like Andre and his crew, never came back.

Twelve of them vanished two years ago this summer, in the bag of Gen. Umberto Nobile's dirigible "Italia," as it drifted away after the crash on the polar ice cap north of Northeastland, and six more in a French seaplane in which Capt. Roald Amundsen set out from Norway to rescue Nobile.

The other 129 perished more than eighty years ago in the vicinity of Baffin island, off the northern coasts of Canada, with Sir John Franklin, a British explorer noted in his day as Amundsen's rival.

Franklin Expedition

In two ships, the "Erebus" and "Terror," Sir John and his crew set out on May 19, 1845, with three years' supplies to find a northwest passage to the Pacific. A few weeks later they sailed from Baffin bay into Lancaster sound. Fourteen years passed before any hint of their fate was brought back and the story was never completed.

When no word had come from them after three years, a search began that lasted more than a decade, resulted in the exploration of 7,000 miles of North American Arctic coast-line and first aroused in Americans an interest in polar exploration.

In August, 1851, a British searching party found on Beechy island, about 3,000 miles west of those later tragedies, traces of what later proved to have been the winter camp of Sir John Franklin and his party in 1845-46.

Find Papers

Eight more years passed, and in the spring of 1859 a party sent out by Sir John's widow found at Point Victory, on King William Island, about 300 miles southward of Beechy island, and right off the coast of Canada, a few skeletons and some papers tucked away in a cairn.

Those papers told the story of the expedition to April 25, 1848. The "Erebus" and the "Terror" ice-beset since Sept. 12, 1846, had been abandoned as they broke up. Sir John was dead, and so were nine of his officers and 15 of his men. The rest of the party—104 officers and men—was about to set out on foot, weak from starvation and exposure, for civilization.

In the years since then, their story has been added to bit by bit. Eskimos told of seeing the white men staggering along over ice and snow, dropping by the trail. How far the last of the 104 travelled probably will never be known.

ATTIC MURDER JURY STILL OUT

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23.—(AP)—With knowledge a verdict of manslaughter as well as not guilty would free her of the charge of murdering her wealthy husband eight year ago, Mrs. Walburga Osterreich tonight awaited a jury's decision.

The six men and six women were given the case at 9:45 a. m., today with instructions from Superior Judge Hardy to return a verdict of first or second degree murder, manslaughter or not guilty. Otto Sanhuber, who confessed he loved Mrs. Osterreich and lived in attics of her homes for eleven years in order to be near her, was convicted of manslaughter in connection with the slaying and was freed because the offense is outlawed in three years.

The all jurors were not in agreement with two discharged alternates was evidenced by debate in the jury room. One alternate said he would have voted for a verdict on heavier than manslaughter and the other favored acquittal.

Fred Osterreich, a Milwaukee apron manufacturer, was found shot to death in his home August 22, 1922, and his wife locked in an upstairs bedroom closet. Mrs. Osterreich testified Sanhuber shot her husband and she tried to conceal the crime and with it her infidelity.

OMAHA MYSTERY GIRL AT LAST IS IDENTIFIED

A World Herald reporter yesterday showed a picture of the murdered woman to John W. "Jay" Moon, who was Wagie's lieutenant and who is in jail at Peoria, Ill., on a government charge of illegal possession of liquor. He also stated that the picture resembled Mrs. Wagie.

He related how Wagie would evade, with curses, attempts to question him about Beulah. Moon is now engaged to Wagie's sister.

Mystery has always surrounded the placing of the floral wreath on the woman's grave at every memorial day. The wreath, unforgetfully has been there when the cemetery gates were opened at dawn and attempts to discover the identity of the person placing it failed.

MACOMB, ILL., AUG. 23.—(AP)—Mystery surrounding the disappearance 11 years ago of Mrs. Beulah McConnell Wagie, was cleared up today at Omaha, Neb., with the identification of pictures of a body, interned eleven years ago in the city.

John W. McConnell, retired farmer of Carthage, Ill., identified the body as that of his daughter. Since eleven years ago, when it was discovered in a wooded glen, murdered, the body has been in the potter's field at Omaha, but with the identification today, McConnell and a daughter announced plans of disintering the body and taking it to Carthage for burial.

Wagie, 11 years ago and left Carthage on a honeymoon, from which she never returned alive.

Postcards bearing St. Louis postmarks were received by the girl's family, to one of the couple's intention of visiting Omaha, but no further word was ever had from the girl.

Wagie returned, but was never charged with the girl's death and a year ago in April he was slain, shot down by an opposition gang of alcohol peddlers who resented his expansion program. He was waylaid at Colchester, Ill., near here and died with 36 slugs from shotguns and pistols in his body.

At the height of his power, Wagie's enterprises took him into Kentucky, north to Chicago, east to Peoria and to Quincy and Keokuk on the west. He controlled the alcohol trade in the territory with an iron hand and brooked no interference.

Even two weeks prior to his death he boasted to friends that he was able to take care of himself, despite the fact that hired assassins were trailing him.

The body of Mrs. Wagie will be taken to Carthage for burial, her father said today at Omaha.

LAKE ERIE RUM ROW ESTABLISHED

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 23.—(AP)—A rum row has been established on Lake Erie, Martin W. Rasmussen, lieutenant commander of the United States coast guard, announced tonight.

Rasmussen said he had every reason to believe that at least four large vessels are lying at anchor in the Canadian waters between Port Huron, Ont., and Long Point, Ont., the latter about 70 miles from Buffalo and are supplying small craft with contraband liquor.

"I do not know the names of the large rum boats," Commander Rasmussen said. "All, however, are well over in Canadian waters. Reports have been brought to me that the boats are there, and these reports are substantiated by the great activity on the part of the small rum running boats which are receiving their cargo from the large rum boats."

"Our coast guard boats are now patrolling the lake along the international boundary."

"I also have reason to believe that the Veda, the rum ship towed into Windsor, Ont., by Canadian authorities and subsequently, is some place on Lake Erie waiting to unload the remainder of its cargo."

ROCKFORD GIRL SUES FOR BALM FOR ALIENATION

Secret Bride Says Husbands Parents Turned Him Against Her

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Claiming they alienated the affections of their son, her secret husband, Mrs. Lucille Gray Forbes today filed suit for $500,000 damages against Walter Forbes, wealthy Rockford, Ill., banker and president of the Northwest Malleable Iron company, and Mrs. Forbes.

Mrs. Forbes Jr. claims that she was married June 8, 1929, at Crown Point, Ind., to Alexander Forbes, 25, son of the banker. The marriage was kept secret she claims, at the suggestion of her husband, who declared his parents would oppose it because of the difference in their social standing. They lived together secretly, she alleges, until last May 24, when her husband deserted her. She charges that his parents, and a confidential adviser, threatened to disinherit him if he did not desert her.

Young Forbes is now at Outbank, Mont., where he is managing his father's oil properties, according to Mrs. Forbes Jr. He was sent there, she says, by his parents to forget, and was first persuaded to turn over his personal property to them.

She also asks an injunction restraining her husband or his parents from disposing of his property, and a writ to prevent him from again leaving Illinois in the event that he returns from Montana to claim his property here.

The elder Forbes is worth more than $5,000,000, she claims.

She also seeks a decree of separate maintenance. She claims she is now destitute and compelled to depend on her friends for support.

Young Forbes is now at Outbank, Mont., where he is managing his father's oil properties, according to Mrs. Forbes Jr. He was sent there, she says, by his parents to forget, and was first persuaded to turn over his personal property to them.

SECRETARY ON DROUGHT TOUR IN KENTUCKY

Hyde Makes Surprise Visit To The Governor of Kentucky

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 23.—(AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde, who is touring drought-stricken states to obtain first-hand information for President Hoover, conferred with Governor Flem D. Summer and Harry A. Volz, chairman of the Kentucky drought relief committee, today regarding conditions in Kentucky.

Secretary Hyde drove into Frankfort unannounced and made a surprise call at the governor's office after the drought relief committee had adjourned its first meeting. Mr. Hyde said that he and three departmental men left Washington Thursday on the tour. They came into Kentucky by way of West Virginia, this morning and drove through the bluegrass country by way of Lexington.

Mr. Hyde planned to drive to Louisville tonight with Mr. Volz. From Louisville he will continue his tour on into Missouri and Arkansas.

Kentucky has received amazingly little rain since the middle of June. "I was afraid the bluegrass had been killed but the rains have brought it to life."

MINERS ENJOIN USING OF NAME

BENTON, Ill., Aug. 23.—(AP)—By agreement between court and counsel the preliminary hearing on the injunction which restrains the mine union faction headed by Alexander Holt from using the name of the United Mine Workers of America, was continued until next Wednesday following the filing of a motion by the defendants to dissolve the restraining order.

It was stated that the question of a change of venue and before what court or court and a date for a hearing on the motion to dissolve the injunction will be left open until next Wednesday.

Shortly before court adjourned today counsel for the fifteen miners of local unions in Franklin county, the original complainants in the suit, filed a motion for permission to name approximately 5,000 miners of southern Illinois as additional complainants.

The injunction which was granted to the 15 coal miners here August 12, restrains the members of the reorganized U. M. W. of A. from not only using the name of the United Mine Workers of America but also restrains them from making any pretense at control of the union. Judge J. C. Kern who granted the injunction also heard the opening arguments at the preliminary hearing today.

SENATE INQUIRY STARTS IN WEST

GLACIER PARK, Mont., Aug. 23.—(AP)—Three members of the senate campaign expenditure committee are here awaiting arrival of Senator Roscoe C. Patterson of Missouri to set dates for inquiries into campaigns of several states and determine policies to be followed in those investigations.

Senator Gerald P. Nye, chairman of the committee, tonight said he expected Senator Patterson to arrive next Tuesday. If the Missouri member appears then, the meeting will be held Wednesday.

Other members of the committee here are Senators Clarence C. Dill of Washington and Porter H. Dale of Vermont.

Chairman Nye said the committee would hold its hearing on the Illinois campaign early in September, the date to be decided after the hearing. The body will return to Nebraska to complete its inquiry there about the middle of September.

No complaints on campaign expenditures have been received from Montana or Minnesota, Senator Nye said. He expressed belief the committee could complete its work here within two days after Senator Patterson's arrival. He said complaints involving excessive expenditures had been received on the Maine senatorial race but could not state whether these would be taken up in the conference here.

GRAND ARMY OF REPUBLIC MEETS IN CINCINNATI

Convention Draws Thousands to Meeting of Veterans of Civil War

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 23.—(AP)—The advance guard of the Grand Army of the Republic bivouacked here tonight ready for its 64th annual encampment.

Between 600 and 800 voting delegates, two thousand other members and added thousands of visitors from allied patriotic organizations were en route to Cincinnati from nearly every state in the union. Commander-in-Chief Edwin J. Foster, bearing the title which originated with Ulysses S. Grant, arrived yesterday and said everything was ready for "the boys."

The encampment opens tomorrow with a concert by the United States marine band, sent here by special act of congress, and dedication of three trees and a flagstaff in Eden park. The annual conference of federated patriotic societies allied with the G. A. R., will be held later in the day with a banquet in the evening.

The first business session will be held Wednesday, the two preceding days being spent in attending to credentials, meetings of the executive committee council of administration and conferences between departmental commanders.

A second business session Thursday, including election of officers will leave everything clear for a pilgrimage up the Ohio river Friday to the birth place of General Grant at Point Pleasant, Ohio. His grandson U. S. Grant III, will be officer of the day. The trip will end the encampment. Allied organizations meeting here next week include the 36th convention of the National Association of Army Nurses of the Civil War, the 46th convention of the National Women's Relief Corps, the 44th national convention of Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, and the 44th national encampment of the Pittsburgh Sons of Union veterans of the Civil War.

The services in Eden Park tomorrow by the United States Marine Band will dedicate one tree to the memory of William C. Johnson, another to Clara Barton, famous Civil War nurse and another to Commander-in-Chief Foster.

G. M. Monry of Valley Head, Ala., a Confederate veteran of the war, asked permission to attend the Union encampment and was promptly invited to do so.

nomination for governor: Ross S. Sterling, Houston, 180,280; Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, 124,942.

DALLAS, TEX., AUG. 23.—(AP)—Mrs. Miriam A. (Ma) Ferguson, Texas' first and only woman governor, was far behind Ross A. Sterling, wealthy Houston publisher and state legislator, in the returns from today's Democratic run-off race for the gubernatorial nomination.

Returns from 115 of the state's 231 counties, including three complete, gave Sterling 180,280 votes, against 124,942 for Mrs. Ferguson.

Most of the tabulations represented voting in cities and towns, however, and Ferguson support in the past has been strongest in the rural sections.

Today's run-off voting was preceded by extremely bitter campaign, filled with personalities. Mrs. Ferguson's name was placed on the ballot after the supreme court held her husband was ineligible to run for office because of his impeachment while governor in 1917. After a similar court test in 1924, Mrs. Ferguson became a candidate for governor and was elected.

Five other democratic nominations for state office were contested today: In the lone congressional district, Representative Gunn Williams and B. D. Sartin, no early tabulations were reported. Run-off voting for office is required in Texas when no more than 50 per cent of the total vote in a race is reported. The Republicans did not hold a run-off election.

ATTIC MURDER JURY STILL OUT

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23.—(AP)—With knowledge a verdict of manslaughter as well as not guilty would free her of the charge of murdering her wealthy husband eight year ago, Mrs. Walburga Osterreich tonight awaited a jury's decision.

The six men and six women were given the case at 9:45 a. m., today with instructions from Superior Judge Hardy to return a verdict of first or second degree murder, manslaughter or not guilty. Otto Sanhuber, who confessed he loved Mrs. Osterreich and lived in attics of her homes for eleven years in order to be near her, was convicted of manslaughter in connection with the slaying and was freed because the offense is outlawed in three years.

The all jurors were not in agreement with two discharged alternates was evidenced by debate in the jury room. One alternate said he would have voted for a verdict on heavier than manslaughter and the other favored acquittal.

Fred Osterreich, a Milwaukee apron manufacturer, was found shot to death in his home August 22, 1922, and his wife locked in an upstairs bedroom closet. Mrs. Osterreich testified Sanhuber shot her husband and she tried to conceal the crime and with it her infidelity.

1927 GAS TAX FUNDS NOT AVAILABLE HERE

Illinois gas tax funds that were collected during 1927 are not yet available for counties with which to carry on their road building programs, a communication issued from the office of George H. Baker, engineer of county roads in Illinois, states. The county board of commissioners and county highway superintendent here received the following letter from Mr. Baker:

"Since a recent decision of the Supreme Court, there seems to be a general understanding that the 1927 gas tax funds are now available. This is not true, and we have no way of knowing when they will be available. You will be notified as soon as these funds are ready for distribution."

Describes Bus Trip Through Southwest-Camps and Fishes

BY HARRY E. WALKER

I left Jacksonville over the Jacksonville-St. Louis Bus Line and transferred to the Pickwick-Greyhound route, which traveled from St. Louis to Los Angeles, Calif., and back. So many people have unaware of the convenience of motor bus travel that I have been asked many times if it was not tiresome, and I say no, due to the fact that the buses are comfortable, rest stops are made frequently and at all of these stops there are convenient rest rooms. The buses stop 10 to 15 minutes at each place. There are also restaurants at these stops where foods are sold at reasonable prices.

The bus companies are very particular about their drivers and all clean, courteous persons and all want to make travel just as convenient and comfortable as possible. They take no chances and all buses come to a complete stop at railroad crossings.

After leaving St. Louis, Mo., my first stopover was at Oklahoma City, where I visited several relatives and friends and as the saying goes, you cannot get very far away from home without you meet someone you know. In Oklahoma City I met Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wana-maker, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Buck-gham and T. E. (Tad) Yeck. Mr. Yeck is an employee of the Oklahoma-man in the National Advertising Dept. After visiting the many points of interest in this Oklahoma City I journeyed on south and west to Phoenix, Ariz. on the way out I passed through El Paso and had a three-hour layover there and I took in as much of the city as possible, leaving there for Phoenix.

See Beauties in Desert

On the way to Phoenix I crossed the desert, and was much impressed with the beauty of it. I had never seen a desert before and expected to see a barren waste of mountains of rolling sand, but much to my surprise, there was quite a bit of vegetation and cattle grazing here and there, also once in a while you would see a homestead or a small town. We crossed the continental divide, and that was quite a thrill since I had never seen a mountain before. Going up the mountain your ears pop on account of the altitude and then as you come down they pop again, which informs you that you are getting down to the altitude that you have been accustomed to. After we reached the foothills we stopped for about fifteen minutes at a ranch house and of course could not see much because it was night. Our passengers all got on again and we started out.

The Coolidge Dam

The next thing of any importance to attract my attention was the beautiful Coolidge Dam, which stands out as a wonderful engineering feat. It is beautiful from an architectural standpoint, finished in white concrete and lighted with electric lights. After leaving the dam we journeyed again over the mountains in the night and arrived at Phoenix at 11:15 p. m. I was met at the bus depot by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Westrope and son, Franklin, Mrs. Clara Smith and sons, Donald and Russell. After the hands shakes and greetings had been extended I decided it was time to get a little sleep, since I had been traveling for two days and nights. The following morning Mr. Westrope took me out to the desert and there I got my first real thrill out of it. He explained the different kinds of cactus and vegetation, and then we took off for the mountains, the orange groves, the beautiful rows of stately palms. The following day I was entertained by Russel Smith, who took me to other points of interest, and of evening between Franklin Westrope, Donald and Russell Smith, every evening was full. They had planned so many things having looked forward to my coming for some time and I was very graciously entertained both in the Smith and Westrope homes.

The next interesting feature was

were all tired out and ready for the hay. The next morning we went trout fishing. This was the first experience for all the gang and of course we did not know exactly what the procedure for catching trout was, so we took a few instructions from an old gentleman who knew all about it. We walked and walked for several miles up this stream casting here and there and finally Russell Smith snagged the first trout. That gave all of us a little more pep so on and on we went all day, listening to the singing of the birds and the rippling of the mountain stream until late in the afternoon when we returned to camp, cleaned and cooked our catch of the day's limit on trout.

The following morning we started for Phoenix, coming over the Apache Trail over the Roosevelt Dam along Canyon Lake, driving up and down mountains and enjoying the beautiful scenery and arrived at Phoenix Saturday night. During all this time we had two flat tires while traveling and a wagon load of fun and experience. Again when we arrived at Phoenix we would get together at the two homes and talk over the trip.

As you will note, both the Smith and Westrope families are former residents of this city. Mr. Westrope and his son, Franklin, were former employees of the Journal-Courier Company and are both employed at the Arizona Republic. Russell Smith was employed at Waddell's store for a time and is now with the Westinghouse Electric Co. Donald Smith was with the Western Union Telegraph Co. and is employed by the same company in the west.

Meets Former Resident

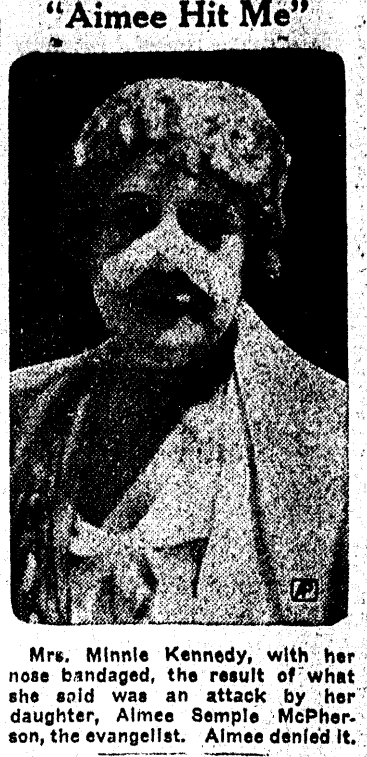

Before leaving Phoenix I had the opportunity to go to Tempe, Ariz., and see George Goodwin, his wife and daughter, also Mrs. Botterbush, all former residents of Jacksonville. I also visited with Dr. and Mrs. Mason at Chandler, Ariz. Mrs. Mason was before her marriage Miss Anna Frances Bradley of this city.

After leaving Phoenix I took off for California, crossing the two deserts, one with vegetation, the other nothing but mountains of sand. Upon arriving at Yuma, Ariz., I saw the cactus siltier about which we have all read. We had to stop for a while. Our baggage was taken off the bus and examined according to a rule and understanding which the states of Arizona and California have. Also Mr. Sun was beaming down at 113 degrees in the shade and there was not any shade to be found. After leaving Yuma we crossed the Colorado river into California, then on and on until we came to Riverside. As we left Riverside and on up the Imperial valley we could see rows of orange trees. Then on into Los Angeles and was met there in Los Angeles at the bus depot by Floyd Rehmeier, formerly of this city.

See Movie Studios

During my stay there in Los Angeles I was royally entertained by Mr. Rehmeier, Soby Hallis, Sanford and Kenneth Baldwin, all former residents of this city. I also met former residents of Jacksonville now living on the coast and during my ten-day stay there I visited many points of interest, including the beaches, Hollywood, San Diego, Beverly Hills, The Fox Studios, Angelus Temple, The San Juan Mission and attended some of the large theatres.

UTILITIES SHOW STRENGTH ON CURB

By Claude A. Jagger
Associated Press Financial Editor
NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—(AP)—A display of strength by utilities in sympathy with the upward trend on the big board was a conspicuous development in a dull session in the curb market today.

The total business for the two hour session was 122,800 shares, the largest portion of which was contributed by utility purchases.

The rest of the market was quiet, and firm, with prices little changed. Gains by the utilities were limited to a point, Electric Bond and Share, United Light and Power A, American Gas and Electric and Duke Power making the best gains. American Superpower was firm, up 1-4.

Cities service and Standard of Indiana were the only notable active utility stocks, while Cities Service closed unchanged and Standard yielded 1-4. Vacuum and Gulf were firm.

The dullness of trading was reflected in the neglected appearance of industrial which have been fairly active. Activity in nearly all was limited to a few transactions, with prices firm. Noranda Mining was in demand and advanced 1-4. Translux was quiet and followed the upward trend to gain 3-8. Dresser manufacturing "A" and Durant motors were soft.

Investment and holding companies were virtually unchanged.

Part of this gain was lost under realizing in the late trading with December closing at 11.11 while the general market closed steady at net advance of 1 to 2 points.

WHEAT RISES BY USE FOR CORN

By John P. Boughan
Associated Press Market Editor
CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Huge enlargement of estimates of the amount of wheat used as livestock feed instead of bread material led to lively upturns in grain values today. According to figures suggested today from responsible sources, the substitution of wheat for corn the season is likely to total 150,000,000 bushels, whereas the highest estimate heretofore has been 125,000,000 bushels, and the generally accepted allowance was about an even 100,000,000 bushels. Corn crop advances today continued to emphasize the unusual number of fields with corn only 3 to 4 feet tall, and the accumulating evidence that barren stalks and unfilled ears are much more the rule than has generally been believed.

Closing quotations on wheat were nervous, 11-12c higher than yesterday's finish. Corn closed unsettled, 1-1c up, oats 1-2c advanced, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 15c. Substitution of as much as 150,000,000 bushels of wheat for corn would be by far the biggest switching of one grain for another ever known, trade authorities said today. The figures pointing to such a gigantic transfer came from the principal partner of one of the leading commission houses here, and were based on preliminary returns gathered under the direction of a former department of agriculture expert. Statements which accompanied the preliminary figures said that it is complete reports expected within 10 days are likely to be of the same character as those already in hand, recent forecasts that 100,000,000 bushels of wheat will be fed would have to be greatly altered, and that 150,000,000 bushels as the aggregate will not be far from actual.

Not until the end of the day did either wheat or corn show much tendency to react from price advances, although numerous standing orders to sell on upturns came into operation at various stages. In the final dealings, however, profit-taking broadened out, and something of a setback from the day's top level was witnessed. At the finish nevertheless, the wheat market did an unusual thing, closing at virtually the day's highest point, and doing so in the face of a statement from a British authority that there is a possibility of Russia exporting 40,000,000 bushels of wheat this season and the Balkans 48,000,000 bushels.

No real scantiness of stocks of corn in Chicago facilitated the upward swing of the corn market and of wheat as well. Corn traders said it was extremely difficult to determine what quotations would discount total offerings today, and to arrive at a fixed volume, oats advanced with other cereals.

Provisions averaged higher owing to grain strength, despite downturns in the value of hogs.

IF GOLF IS A SCOTCH GAME—WHY IS IT SO EXPENSIVE...

"I wouldn't care."

"I'd rather hurry back to town," said Clowney, "where I could lie down. I know a nap would do me good. Few hours I wouldn't peep." The other, only smiled at him. Said one, "You seem to be in a trim. I guess you must be lazy, cause you always want to sleep."

And then they passed a farm far stretch and Cobby said, "I'd like to catch a ride on that farm wagon, the farmer wouldn't care. Just look, Big oxen pull it. See? I'll bet they're lazy as can be. The wheels are made of wood and it's a queer two-wheeled affair."

The Travel Man then, with a smile said, "Well, come on, let's stop while. The peasant looks quite friendly. Note how strangely he is dressed." The peasant shortly he said to each one. Said he, "I'll help you have some fun." The Tines felt really lucky cause with kindness they were blessed.

They helped the man pitch hay while. "I travel now for half a mile," said he. "And then I pack the hay in my barn, safe and sound. Now, you want a ride today just hop right up there on the hay." The Tines at last, shortly went a bumping over the straw.

WOOD-ROODHOUSE FAMILIES IN U. S. 100 YEARS TODAY

Centennial of Arrival to be Observed in Greene County

White Hall, Aug. 24.—The observance of the centennial of the arrival of the Wood-Roodhouse family in America is being observed today at the original home far a place, two miles south of White Hall, now owned by Peter J. Roodhouse of the present generation on the stage of action. The event also celebrates the 90th birthday anniversary of Miss Mary Wood, the first child of the family. The Wood-Roodhouse family, the fifth generation in America, scattered over Green and Macoupin counties and in various states.

Benjamin Roodhouse was a native of Yorkshire, England. There he and Jane Wood were married. She was the widow of William Wood, a local captain, who was drowned. He had four children by his first marriage. Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Roodhouse, and they came to America with the four Wood children and their five Roodhouse children in 1830, reaching St. Louis in December of the year. In January, 1831, the family came to Greene county, where Mr. Roodhouse purchased 480 acres in the southern part of White Hall township. This country was at that time a part of Madison county. At the end of the year, August, 1831, that same year, and his widow took charge of the family and the large interests, managing with marked ability, dying on June 14, 1860. She built a home of brick, the brick being made on the home place in 1842, the house containing 1842, the house containing being dedicated previous to occupancy. It was located near the present large cattle barns of P. J. Roodhouse.

Her children consisted of William Wood, Isaac Wood, Mary Wood Morrow, Abraham Wood, Jane Roodhouse, Benjamin, and John Roodhouse (twins). Peter Roodhouse and James Roodhouse.

John Roodhouse became the founder of the City of Roodhouse, whose generosity and public spirit was inherited from a noble mother, whose home was always a place of refuge for the needy, especially children, and the wayfarer always found a generous reception. She was deeply religious, and itinerant preachers were frequently entertained in this home. It was a rendezvous for all who came that way.

Moved to Carrollton

Benjamin Roodhouse moved to Carrollton in 1856, dying there in 1893. A survivor of this family is Miss Adeline Roodhouse, residing at Carrollton, whose historical research was one of the features of the family gathering today, gathering material on a trip to England.

Peter Roodhouse remained on the home farm, dying in 1879, the place today being owned by a grandson, Peter Roodhouse.

James located at Manchester, where he enlisted in the Civil War as captain of Company G, 91st Illinois Infantry. He located at Fort Scott, Kansas, at a later date, dying there in 1904.

Jane Roodhouse died on the home farm in 1860.

The Wood children early located elsewhere, mostly in Macoupin county. The honored guest today was born six miles west of Carrollville, Aug. 24, 1840, daughter of William and Matilda Wright Wood. When twenty months old she came to Greene county to reside with her grandmother, Mrs. Jane Roodhouse, widow of the sire of this great family. She has remained with the family and its descendants until this day, residing in White Hall since 1893, on coming of M. W. Roodhouse and family into town.

She is still active in house work in the home of Peter J. Roodhouse in White Hall. She baked a cake for today's celebration. She has the distinction of being the second and fifth generations in the Roodhouse home in this city. She has two surviving half brothers, William and Paul Wood of Carrollville, the former 74 and the latter 69.

This is the first family reunion in the hundred years since coming to America. The home of the family place afforded a water supply for the occasion. The spring house of stone is still standing, it being built by Peter Roodhouse Sr. in 1863, the work being done by Wm. McAvoy and Ed Adams. Various heirlooms were exhibited that had been handed down from the old home in England.

The whole family history is one of staunch Americanism, the widow of Benjamin Roodhouse remarking in her day that when they came to America they left Johnny Bull at home.

M. W. Roodhouse, who moved to White Hall from the home farm in 1883, died in 1926, while carrying out important public work as mayor of the city. His wife preceded him in death in 1922.

VERSAILLES STORE DESTROYED BY FIRE

Mercedis, Aug. 23.—Versailles suffered a bad fire early Sunday morning when the J. C. Penney store there was entirely consumed. The fire department of that place made a good fight but owing to the scarcity of water and the many moves to different cities they are now in time to help have some of the adjoining buildings.

Mercedis firemen used the booster tank which holds 70 gallons and water and by putting the water where it was needed succeeded in saving the barber shop which joined the burned building on one side. The picture theatre on the other side was also saved with little damage. No one in the department gets a cent in salary and each is always ready to respond to a call and do his best.

Grant's Birthplace Draws G. A. R. To Camp Third Time at Cincinnati

Led by Edwin J. Foster, G. A. R. commander (right) remnant of Civil War veterans will make pilgrimage to site of the homestead (below) of Gen. U. S. Grant (left).

Cincinnati, Ohio.—(P)—The Yankee "boys" of '61, or the remnant that is left of them, will make their last salute to General Grant here Aug. 29.

It will be their third reunion at Cincinnati. The first was in '69, the second in '98.

On the last day of what will inevitably be one of the last of the annual encampments of the Grand Army of the Republic the veterans, who are scheduled to arrive here August 24, will board river steamers for a short trip to Point Pleasant, Ohio, where they will be greeted at the old Grant homestead by Lieut. Col. U. S. Grant III, grandson of the general.

There the encampment will end with a solemn tribute to their former leader, around which will undoubtedly be the last camp fire for many of them.

Three, four, maybe five more encampments may still be held, the veterans estimated, not more.

Only a bare handful of these silver-haired Yankees remain, but these insisted upon coming to Cincinnati this year so that they might once more camp near the home site of their leader, who was born near here.

The penalty of years, the veterans indicate, will not dim the patriotic spirit of the blue-clad warriors as they pass down the streets in what G. A. R. leaders expect will be the final parade and review.

Nicholas Longworth, speaker of the national house of representatives and congressman from Cincinnati, is honorary chairman of the national encampment. He will welcome the veterans and Edwin J. Foster, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. will respond.
